

Personal Items to Add to Your Survival Kit

- Cell phone chargers. One outlet charger and one portable battery charger.
- Travel sized toiletries. Basic toiletries are included in our survival kits but it is nice to have your favorites too.
- Up to 3 days of clothing. Use layers for different weather and temperatures. Don't forget to include waterproof boots.
- 3 days of each of your prescriptions. If you use an oxygen tank make sure you have a portable one on hand at all times.
- Fill a ziplock bag with: copies of your birth certificate, driver's license, Social Security and Medicare cards, power of attorney and will, any marriage and adoption or naturalization certificates, proof of address, insurance, medical and immunization records, information about your bank accounts, credit and ATM cards, medical records, and important phone numbers.
- Cash. Have small bills in a ziplock bag and a roll of quarters.
